

Plein Air Painting

with Brian Murphy
June 24 – 30, 2014

at Domaine du Haut Baran in the Southwest of France

This region of France we call the Perigord, Dordogne, Quercy is truly a place of wonder. Man has lived here for millennia in villages and small cities along the banks of the Dordogne and Lot rivers. This area has been able to preserve its genuine quality and leisurely way of life.

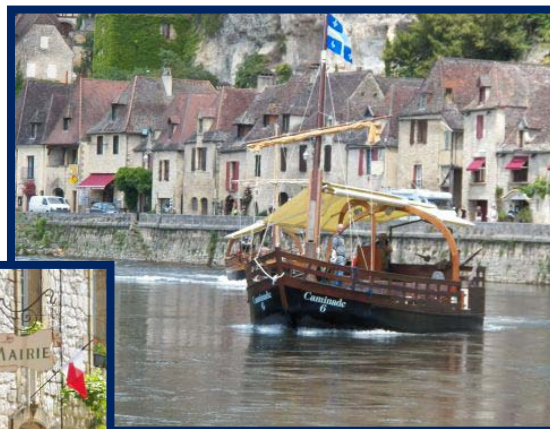

Come and experience great painting, great food, great wine and great company.

Come join Brian Murphy for a week's painting adventure in the Southwest of France. Loosen up your technique and create "Light Filled" paintings while learning how to paint with a "Limited Palette".

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

Painting in Quercy/Perigord, famous for prehistoric art!

- 7 Nights accommodations at Haut Baran (double occupancy).
- Daily classes, demonstrations and critiques with Brian
- Transportation to/from Toulouse Airport which is the arrival/departure point on arrival/departure day.
- Transportation to/from tour sites, restaurants & stores where needed.
- Daily continental breakfasts (croissants, toast, coffee, etc.)
- 3 lunches.
- 3 dinners (wine included).
- Arrangements and transportation for restaurants.
- Several days of on location painting/photo/sketch at areas most beautiful sites.
- All taxes and Free WiFi.

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED:

- Airfare
- Alcohol other than wine with dinner.

ABOUT BRIAN MURPHY: Brian started his painting career in California where the California Impressionist movement touched his creative soul. He has exhibited his work in galleries in California, Oregon, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia and has won numerous awards. He currently lives and teaches painting in Newport News, Virginia.

Price: $2695.00 USD per person

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Rosalie and William
www.hautbaran.com
hautbaranfrance@gmail.com

Brian Murphy
www.bmurphy.net
bmurphyoils@yahoo.com